

Sceptre Delivers Performance and Value with New Brush Pattern Bezel 40-inch LED HDTV

City of Industry, Calif – November 13, 2013 – Sceptre, superior manufacturers of world class LED/LCD HDTVs and PC displays, delivers the perfect combination of performance and value with its newest LED HDTV. The X405BV-FHDR features a true 40-inch FullHD crystal clear viewable area, 1920x1080 panel resolution, 16:9 widescreen ratio and 3 HDMI ports for only $399.99 MSRP.

Highlighted by a unique brush pattern bezel, the X405BV-FHDR features a minimalistic design with ultra-clean lines, making it ideal for even the most elegant decors. The 40-inch LED HDTV's subtle design weighs less than 20lbs and measures only 3.5 inches at its thickest, making it perfect for mounting in smaller rooms or in commercial locations.

“Our newest 40-inch LED HDTV reinforces our belief that value is a combination of performance and affordability,” said Cathy Chou, vice president of operations, Sceptre. “Sceptre understands the consumers’ needs and has created a line of products that provide great family entertainment without breaking the bank.”

The X405BV-FHDR is Energy Star V6.0 compliant, has an estimated yearly energy cost of only $12.30 and is equipped with a rated lamp life of more than 30,000 hours. Sceptre’s newest 40-inch LED HDTV is currently available for $399.99 MSRP at Walmart, Amazon, QVC, Sears, K-mart, Tiger Direct, Costco and NewEgg.
